Life in London

Hi! My name is Lina. I live in London, the capital of Britain. London is a big and popular city with many tourists. I come from France, and speaking English is sometimes difficult for me. The currency here is not the euro. It's the pound. I have a small flat near Hyde Park. It is next to a school, and I wake up to the sounds of children in the mornings. You can walk in the park and watch the ducks on the lake. Every morning I take the bus to school. It is often busy, but it's fast.

I'm a student at the Art College here. I want to become a famous artist. My classes are in the mornings. I have international classmates from all over the world, and my best friend is also from France. We are both servers in a restaurant. In the afternoons, we are busy to serve customers. In the evenings, we meet our international friends at a café near the restaurant where we work.

There are many good places to eat in town. My favorite food is Korean-style chicken curry, and I also like fish and chips, which is a good example of English food. I enjoy living in London, but it is expensive for a student. I'm happy here because I have a job here.
